Our Tradition... Caring Since 1982

GRISWOLD SPECIAL CARE was founded in 1982 by Dr. Jean Griswold. Her personal experience and education, combined with a background in geriatric counseling, prompted her to recognize and respond to the growing need for home care services. GRISWOLD SPECIAL CARE has received dozens of awards and honors for outstanding service and excellence. We have been profiled on NBC's Today Show and have received national recognition through articles in Forbes, Success, Entrepreneur, USA Today and other publications. Today, we refer extraordinary caregivers to families from coast to coast – all at surprisingly affordable rates.
